Introduction

About this document

This document (highlighted in the figure below) is part of a suite of documents which sets out our regulatory requirements for awarding organisations offering legacy (pre-reform) AS and A level qualifications.

Requirements set out in this document

For all GCE A levels and GCE AS qualifications, awarding organisations must comply with the *General Conditions of Recognition*¹ and all relevant Regulatory Documents².

This document sets out further conditions and requirements which apply to all legacy (pre-reform) AS and A levels – that is, all GCE AS and A level qualifications accredited by Ofqual prior to 26 May 2014.

It sets out our requirements in relation to setting specified levels of attainment for pre-reform GCE qualifications – awarding organisations must comply with these requirements under Condition GCE(Pre-reform)2.1. It also sets out our requirements in relation to specifying deadlines for requesting reviews of marking, reviews of Moderation and appeals – awarding organisations must comply with these requirements under Conditions GCE(Pre-reform)7.3(b), GCE(Pre-reform)10.3(b) and GCE(Pre-reform)11.4(b).

For GCE AS and A level qualifications accredited by Ofqual on or after 26 May 2014, awarding organisations do not need to comply with these conditions and requirements. They must instead comply with:

² www.gov.uk/government/publications/regulatory-documents-list

- the GCE Qualification Level Conditions and Requirements,³
- the relevant GCE Subject Level Conditions and Requirements.⁴

Revisions to this document

This document was originally published as General Conditions of Recognition in respect of GCE Qualifications. We have subsequently revised this document (see Appendix 1 for details), most recently in September 2017.

The September 2017 version of this document replaces all previous Conditions and requirements for pre-reform GCE qualifications with effect from 00.01 on Wednesday 20 September 2017. It removes the following transitional provisions, which are no longer in force:

- Conditions GCE(Pre-reform)5.4 and 5.5; and
- Condition GCE(Pre-reform)11.12.

It also amends Condition GCE(Pre-reform)11.14 to reflect these changes

Qualification Level Conditions

Pre-reform GCE Qualification Level Conditions

Condition GCE(Pre-reform)1 Assessment arrangements

- GCE(Pre-reform)1.1 An awarding organisation must ensure that in respect of each GCE qualification which it makes available a Learner is assessed during the months of May and/or June in any single year.
- GCE(Pre-reform)1.2 Condition GCE(Pre-reform)1.1 does not apply in respect of any assessment where evidence generated by a Learner in that assessment is marked by a Centre.
- GCE(Pre-reform)1.3 In respect of each GCE qualification which it makes available an awarding organisation must ensure that –
- (a) it issues a single result, or a single set of results, in respect of each Learner, following completion by that Learner of the assessments to be taken for that qualification,
 - (b) where confirmation of, or a change to, any mark for an assessment has been communicated to a Centre or a Learner in advance of the issue of that result or set of results, no further evidence generated by that Learner will be admissible as part of that assessment, and
 - (c) where any result for a unit has been communicated to a Centre or a Learner in advance of the issue of that result or set of results, no further evidence generated by that Learner will be admissible as part of the assessments for that unit.

Condition GCE(Pre-reform)2 Standard setting

GCE(Pre-reform)2.1 In respect of each GCE qualification which it makes available, an awarding organisation must comply with any requirements, and have regard to any guidance, which may be published by Ofqual and revised from time to time in relation to –

(a) the promotion of consistency between the measurement of Learners' levels of attainment in that qualification and similar qualifications made available by other awarding organisations, and

(b) the setting of specified levels of attainment.

GCE(Pre-reform)2.2 In setting the specified levels of attainment for a GCE qualification which it makes available, an awarding organisation must have regard to an appropriate range of qualitative and quantitative evidence.

GCE(Pre-reform)2.3 In respect of each GCE qualification which it makes available, the range of evidence to which an awarding organisation has regard for the purposes of Condition GCE(Pre-reform)2.2 will only be appropriate if it includes evidence of –

(a) the Level of Demand of the assessments for that qualification,

(b) the level of attainment demonstrated in those assessments by an appropriately representative sample of Learners taking that qualification,

(c) the level of attainment demonstrated by Learners taking that qualification in –

(i) a prior assessment (which was not for that qualification), whether or not that assessment was for a regulated qualification, or

(ii) a prior qualification, whether or not that qualification was a regulated qualification, and

- (d) the level of attainment demonstrated by Learners who have previously been awarded the qualification.

GCE(Pre-reform)2.4 An awarding organisation must maintain a record of –

- (a) the evidence to which it has had regard in setting the specified levels of attainment for each GCE qualification which it makes available, and
- (b) its rationale for the selection of and weight given to that evidence.

Condition GCE(Pre-reform)3 Marking arrangements

GCE(Pre-reform)3.1 In respect of each GCE qualification which it makes available, an awarding organisation must ensure that the arrangements which are in place in accordance with General Condition H1.1 provide that, in respect of an assessment other than an assessment marked by a Centre –

- (a) all marking will be carried out by Assessors who have appropriate competence and who have no personal interest in the outcome of the marking,
- (b) prior to carrying out any marking, each Assessor shall be provided with training,
- (c) the awarding organisation shall monitor whether or not the criteria against which the Learners' performance is differentiated are being understood and accurately applied by Assessors,
- (d) where the awarding organisation learns, through its monitoring or otherwise, that an Assessor is failing to accurately apply the criteria against which the Learners' performance is differentiated, it shall take all reasonable steps to –
 - (i) correct, or where it cannot be corrected, mitigate as far as possible the effect of the failure, and
 - (ii) ensure that the failure does not recur in the future,
- (e) the awarding organisation shall monitor whether or not the criteria against which the Learners' performance is differentiated are being applied consistently by Assessors, and
- (f) where the awarding organisation learns, through its monitoring or otherwise, that the criteria against which the Learners' performance is differentiated are not being applied consistently by Assessors, it shall take all reasonable steps to promote consistency in the future.

GCE(Pre-reform)3.2 In respect of each GCE qualification which it makes available where an assessment is marked by a Centre, an awarding organisation must ensure that the arrangements which are in place in accordance with General Condition H1.1 provide that prior to the marking of the assessment the awarding organisation makes available training to the Centre.

GCE(Pre-reform)3.3 In respect of each GCE qualification which it makes available, an awarding organisation must ensure that the monitoring which is carried out in accordance with General Condition C1.1(b) includes monitoring of whether or not Assessors are marking in a manner which is compliant with the awarding organisation's Conditions of Recognition.

- (c) prior to carrying out any Moderation, each person tasked with carrying out such Moderation shall be provided with training,
- (d) prior to carrying out any Moderation, a person tasked with carrying out such Moderation shall be provided with a copy of –
 - (i) any evidence generated by Learners which is to be considered for the purpose of Moderation or, where such evidence is not held or cannot readily be copied, a representation of the evidence in another form,
 - (ii) the record of the awarding of marks made by Assessors when that evidence was marked,
 - (iii) any comments which Assessors recorded during the marking of that evidence, and

GCE(Pre-reform)4.2 In respect of each GCE qualification involving Moderation which it makes available, an awarding organisation must ensure that the monitoring which is carried out in accordance with General Condition C1.1(b) includes monitoring of whether or not persons carrying out Moderation are doing so in a manner which is compliant with the awarding organisation's Conditions of Recognition.

Condition GCE(Pre-reform)5 Review of marking of centre-marked assessments

- GCE(Pre-reform)5.1 In respect of each GCE qualification which it makes available or proposes to make available where an assessment is marked by a Centre, an awarding organisation must –

 - (b) take all reasonable steps to ensure that the Centre complies with those provisions.
- GCE(Pre-reform)5.2 For the purposes of this condition, the agreement must include provisions which require the Centre to –

Condition GCE(Pre-reform)15 Review Arrangements and certificates

GCE(Pre-reform)15.1

In respect of each GCE qualification which it makes available, an awarding organisation must take all reasonable steps, including having procedures in place, to ensure that it revokes any certificate if the result on the certificate is revealed to be inaccurate as a consequence of the application of the awarding organisation's Review Arrangements in the case of a Learner.

Condition GCE(Pre-reform)16 Discovery of failure in assessment processes

GCE(Pre-reform)16.1

Where the application of the awarding organisation's Review Arrangements or the application of an appeals process in the case of a Learner leads an awarding organisation to discover a failure in its assessment process, it must take all reasonable steps to —

- (a) identify any other Learner who has been affected by the failure,
- (b) correct or, where it cannot be corrected, mitigate as far as possible the effect of the failure, and
- (c) ensure that the failure does not recur in the future.

GCE(Pre-reform)17.1

In respect of each GCE qualification which it makes available, or proposes to make available, the information which an awarding organisation publishes on its Review Arrangements and on the appeals process it has in place must enable Learners and Centres to have –

- (b) a reasonable understanding of how the Review Arrangements and the appeals process relate to each other.

GCE(Pre-reform)17.2

An awarding organisation must take all reasonable steps to ensure that information which it publishes on its Review Arrangements and its appeals process for a GCE qualification is published sufficiently far in advance of the time at which the qualification to which they relate will be made available to Learners to satisfy the reasonable planning requirements of potential purchasers.

Condition GCE(Pre-reform)18 Interpretation and definitions

GCE(Pre-reform)18.1	The rules of interpretation and definitions outlined in General Condition J1 shall apply to the GCE (Pre-reform) Qualification Level Conditions.
GCE(Pre-reform)18.2	Except in the circumstances described in Condition GCE(Pre-reform)18.3, the requirements imposed by the GCE (Pre-reform) Qualification Level Conditions apply in addition to the requirements imposed by the General Conditions of Recognition.
GCE(Pre-reform)18.3	To the extent that there is any inconsistency between a requirement of a GCE (Pre-reform) Qualification Level Condition and a requirement of a General Condition of Recognition, such that an awarding organisation could not comply with both such requirements, the awarding organisation must comply with the requirement of the GCE (Pre-reform) Qualification Level Condition and is not obliged to comply with the requirement of the General Condition of Recognition.
GCE(Pre-reform)18.4	In these Conditions, the following words shall have the meaning given to them below (and cognate expressions should be construed accordingly) –

Administrative Error

An error in the marking of an assessment which is either –

- (a) a failure to mark a task forming part of the assessment, or
- (b) a failure to correctly calculate the total mark for the assessment from the marks which were awarded by the Assessor for the tasks forming part of the assessment.

Administrative Error Review

- (b) a copy of the record of the awarding of marks made by the Assessor when the evidence generated by the Learner was marked, and
- (c) a copy of any comments which the Assessor recorded during the marking of the evidence generated by the Learner.

Marking Error

The awarding of a mark which could not reasonably have been awarded given the evidence generated by the Learner, the criteria against which Learners' performance is differentiated and any procedures of the awarding organisation in relation to marking, including in particular where the awarding of a mark is based on –

- (a) an Administrative Error,
- (b) a failure to apply such criteria and procedures to the evidence generated by the Learner where that failure did not involve the exercise of academic judgment, or
- (c) an unreasonable exercise of academic judgment.

Moderation Error

The arrival at an outcome of Moderation which could not reasonably have been arrived at given the evidence generated by Learners which was considered for the purpose of Moderation, the Centre's marking of that evidence, the criteria against which Learners' performance is differentiated and any procedure of the awarding organisation in relation to Moderation, including in particular where the arrival at an outcome of Moderation is based on –

- (a) an Administrative Error,
- (b) a failure to apply such criteria and procedures to the evidence generated by Learners where that failure did not involve the exercise of academic judgment, or
- (c) an unreasonable exercise of academic judgment.

Pilot GCE Qualification

A GCE A level qualification which is a GCE A level qualification in Geography, a GCE A level qualification in Physics or a GCE A level qualification in Religious Studies.

Review Arrangements

In relation to a GCE qualification, the arrangements which an awarding organisation is required to establish, maintain and comply with in accordance with –

- (a) Condition GCE(Pre-reform)7 – Review of Moderation,

- (c) Condition GCE(Pre-reform)9 – Administrative Error Review, and
- (d) Condition GCE(Pre-reform)10 – Review of marking of Marked Assessment Material.

Standard setting requirements

Requirements for setting specified levels of attainment for GCE (Pre-reform) qualifications

Condition GCE(Pre-reform)2.1(b) allows us to specify requirements and guidance in relation to the setting of specified levels of attainment for GCE (Pre-reform) qualifications.

We set out below our requirements for the purposes of GCE(Pre-reform)2.1(b).

For ease of reference, the specified levels of attainment used in GCE (Pre-reform) qualifications are referred to below as 'grades'.

Setting specified levels of attainment

1. Aggregate marks must be calculated on the basis of a uniform mark scale:
 - (a) Uniform marks for each unit⁵ must be calculated in such a way as to maintain the Learners' relative position between the raw grade boundaries.
 - (b) Each unit must be reported in uniform marks.
 - (c) Uniform marks for individual assessment units must be added to generate a final grade for the qualification as a whole.
 - (d) Where a Learner has taken more than the required number of units, the awarding organisation must generate the best grade for the Learner.
2. The two key grade boundaries are:
 - (a) E/U
 - (b) A/B.

An awarding organisation must set the grade boundaries in the sequence given above for each unit/Component.

3. Where a unit consists of two or more Components, grade E/U and A/B boundary marks must be determined for each Component separately. The boundary mark for each Component must be scaled as necessary to reflect the weighting for that Component as detailed in the specification, and these scaled Component boundary marks must be added to give unit boundary marks. These unit boundary marks must then be used as the basis for conversion to uniform marks.

4. Where Learners repeat a unit that consists partly of internally assessed work⁶, moderated marks for their internally assessed work may be carried forward during the lifetime of the specification (if allowed by the specification).
5. An awarding organisation must determine the other unit/Component grade boundaries arithmetically:
 - (a) The grade B/C, C/D and D/E boundary marks are calculated by dividing the mark interval between the A/B and E/U boundaries by four.
 - (b) Where there is a remainder of one, the extra mark is added to the A to B mark range.
 - (c) Where there is a remainder of two, one extra mark is added to each of the A to B and B to C mark ranges.
 - (d) Where there is a remainder of three, one extra mark is added to each of the A to B, B to C and C to D mark ranges.
6. For all units, raw marks are converted to uniform marks according to the table below. At qualification level, the uniform mark grade boundaries are set at the same percentages of the maximum uniform mark for the qualification.

For GCE	A	B	C	D	E
Percentage of available uniform marks	80	70	60	50	40

7. A mark of zero on the raw mark scale must always be converted to zero on the uniform mark scale. The maximum raw mark for the unit is always converted to the maximum uniform mark for the unit.
8. With the exception of A level qualifications in mathematics and further mathematics, an A* grade will be awarded to Learners who achieve grade A overall and also achieve 90 per cent or more of the maximum uniform mark on the aggregate of the A2 units.

⁶ For the purposes of these requirements 'internal assessed work' is work undertaken for a form of assessment in which full examination conditions do not apply. The awarding organisation will specify controls that will apply to how work is set, the conditions under which it will be done and how it will be assessed.

9. For each A level qualification in mathematics, an A* grade will be awarded to Learners achieving a grade A overall and 90 per cent or more of the maximum uniform mark on the aggregate of units C3 and C4.
10. For each A level qualification in further mathematics, an A* grade will be awarded to Learners achieving a grade A overall and 90 per cent or more of the maximum uniform mark on the aggregate of their three best A2 units.
11. The maximum uniform mark for a GCE qualification is dependent on the number of units according to the table below.

Number of units	1	2	3	4	5	6	9	12
Maximum uniform mark	100	200	300	400	500	600	900	1,200

12. For double awards, the grade range at qualification level is extended to allow credit for intermediate performance. The uniform mark grade boundaries are set at the percentages of the maximum uniform mark for the qualification according to the table below.

For GCE double award	AA	AB	BB	BC	CC	CD	DD	DE	EE
Percentage of available uniform marks	80	75	70	65	60	55	50	45	40

13. For the applied A level double award, there will be an A*A* and an A*A grade. In each case, Learners will need to achieve an AA grade overall. The A*A* grade will be awarded to those achieving 90 per cent or more of the maximum uniform mark on the aggregate of all of the A2 units. The A*A grade will be awarded to those achieving 90 per cent or more of the maximum uniform mark on the aggregate of the three best A2 units but not achieving A*A*. For the applied A level nine-unit award, there will be an A*A grade (but not an A*A* grade). A*A will be awarded to Learners who achieve grade AA on the nine-unit award overall and 90 per cent or more of the maximum uniform mark on the three A2 units.

Requirements for key dates

Reviews of marking, moderation, and appeals: requirements for key dates for GCE (Pre-reform) qualifications

We set out below the requirements which an awarding organisation must comply with when it specifies deadlines for requesting reviews of marking, reviews of Moderation and appeals. These requirements are published under Conditions GCE(Pre-reform)7.3(b), GCE(Pre-reform)10.3(b) and GCE(Pre-reform)11.4(b) and apply to all GCE (Pre-reform) qualifications.

Awarding organisations are no longer required to set deadline dates for Learners/Centres to request reviews of marking, reviews of Moderation and appeals. In choosing to set any deadlines, an awarding organisation must comply with the requirements set out below and with all other requirements in its Conditions of Recognition.

In particular the requirements set out below must be read and complied with in conjunction with the GCE (Pre-reform) Qualification Level Conditions (which set out further requirements in relation to an awarding organisation's arrangements).

The requirements set out below align with the GCE (Pre-reform) Qualification Level Conditions which are in effect. Some relevant GCE (Pre-reform) Qualification Level Conditions have not yet come into effect and there are currently some transitional provisions in effect. We will keep the requirements set out below under review as any changes are made.

Requirements for key dates for assessments other than assessments which are marked by a Centre⁷

An awarding organisation must ensure that the requirements in the table below are met in each case where the assessment is not marked by a Centre. The table sets out the minimum timeframe within which the awarding organisation must allow a review/appeal to be requested. Provided a review/appeal is allowed to be requested in that timeframe, an awarding organisation is permitted to also provide an 'accelerated service' (for example, where requests for reviews provided by an earlier date will be processed more quickly).

	STAGE	TIMEFRAME REQUIREMENTS
A	Date results are issued.

⁷ The footnotes in the table are for information only.

B	Date by which a request for Marked Assessment Material must be made (where applicable ⁸).
C	Date of receipt of Marked Assessment Material ⁹ .
D	Date by which a request for a review of marking of Marked Assessment Material must be made ¹⁰ .	Learner/Centre making the request must be allowed at least four weeks following Stage A to make the request, and where Marked Assessment Materials are required to be provided, Learner/Centre making the request must be allowed at least two weeks following Stage C to make the request.
E	Date awarding organisation reports the outcome of the review of marking ¹¹ .
F	Date by which reasons for the outcome of the review must be requested ¹² .
G	Date awarding organisation provides reasons for the outcome of the review.

⁸ Under Condition GCE(Pre-reform)8, it is up to awarding organisations to decide whether to make Marked Assessment Materials available automatically or only on request.

⁹ Under Condition GCE(Pre-reform)8.3, an awarding organisation's arrangements for making Marked Assessment Material available must allow Learners/Centres a reasonable opportunity to consider whether to request a review of marking.

¹⁰ Any date which is set must comply with Condition GCE(Pre-reform)10.3, including complying with the requirements set out in the table.

¹¹ Under Condition GCE(Pre-reform)13, awarding organisations are required to have and take all reasonable steps to meet a target for the time it will take to complete a review.

¹² Under Condition GCE(Pre-reform)10.7(a), awarding organisations are required to provide reasons for the outcome of the review on request, although they may specify a reasonable deadline for requests.

H	Date by which an appeal of the result of the assessment must be requested ¹³ .
